- Legal -

What is the ownership structure at Radisson Phuket Mai Khao Beach?

The property will be sold as a condominium and therefore has to comply with the condominium act of Thailand. Within the act it states that a quota of up to 49 % of the total saleable area may be sold to Non Thai Nationals with freehold title deed. Within this project the developer is retaining over 51% of the saleable area which will also be provided to the hotel for operations. As such all of the units for sale to individual buyers fall within the allowed quota of Non Thai National Freehold allocation and can therefore be owned on a Freehold basis.

What are the taxes and costs associated with the unit purchase?

The costs & taxes associated with the unit purchase are outlined below:

- Transfer Fee: The transfer fee of 2% shall be paid for an equal share basis by the buyer and developer.
- Legal Fees: Fee payable to the buyers' legal representative to conduct due diligence and contract review. The fee ranges between law firms.

Certain applicable tax rates rely upon the relevant Thai tax laws at the date of issue of this FAQ. Changes in law or circumstances may occur after the issue date.*

Are there other on-going taxes and expenses?

A) Common Area Fee will be charged at THB 70 per SQM per month.

B) Sinking Fund Fee will be charged at THB 600 per SQM. This is a one-off payment.

C) Taxes on rental income: If rental income is paid to a non-resident of Thailand, the income is subject to a withholding tax at the rate of 15%. Under the Thai Revenue Code, a person residing in Thailand for 180 days or more in one tax year is deemed to be a resident of Thailand, in which case they are subject to a withholding tax rate of 5%.

- Construction –

What are the warranties on the finishing's and materials?

As a residence operated by an International hospitality brand then attention to the specifications has been made in consultation with Radisson to ensure that it complies to both their brand standards, and that it meets hospitality grade standards, which are usually a higher wear and tear criteria than domestic use, and higher safety rating. Comprehensive warranties of 2 years on all loose fixtures and fittings are standard as a minimum requirement. In addition, the structure of the building comes with a 5 year warranty.

- Rental Program –

Is there a rental program available?

All units will be part of a Rental Program operated under Radisson Hotel Group. Owners will benefit from a 14-day complimentary usage per annum.

Is there any rental guarantee and what level of rental return can be expected?

During the first three years of operation, there is a guaranteed yield of 6% based on the contractual price. At the end of the 3rd year, and for the remaining term of the leaseback (years 4-15) then there is a revenue sharing model. The revenue split is at a ratio of 40% to the owner and 60% to the management company, derived from the GROSS ROOM REVENUE of the ROOM TYPE POOL. Further details of the revenue sharing model are available with your agent. The examples of projection have been made in consultation with the brand, and by utilising data from the globally recognised hospitality focused STR report <https://str.com>. Accounting standard will follow the most recent (11th Edition currently) Uniform System of Accounts, the globally recognised hospitality accountancy standard.

How is the rental return paid?

The rental return shall be calculated with an issuance of a bi-annual statement of the Owner's Entitlement, and shall remit any entitlement within 30 business days of the end of the bi-annual period.

What are the terms & conditions of my 14-day usage?

The 14-day complimentary usage is subject to the following terms & conditions:

- Owner's Usage: 14 days usage per annum, subject to the following terms:

7 days during High Season	(1 Nov-19 Dec and 21 Jan – 30 April)
7 days during Low Season	(1 May – 31 Oct)
Blackout period	(20 Dec-20 Jan)

- Units Availability: The Management will use the best endeavor to assign units to their respective owners. If an owner's unit is not available, an alternate unit will be offered, subject to availability.

- Unused Days: Owners will not be able to carry over any unused days to the next calendar year.
- Cancellations: Cancellations must be made within 14 days prior to arrival date
- Friends & Family Usage: Usage days can be utilized by owner's family & friends
